Saint Anne Prayer

Good Saint Anne, obtain for me an increase of faith in the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist. Help me to see in this great Sacrament Christ our High Priest, making real for me the saving grace of His death on the cross; feeding my soul with His Flesh and Blood so that I may live in Him and He in me; producing the unity of the people of God and gathering His Church together. By your powerful intercession with God, help me to center my life around the altar that I may inherit the promise of the Lord: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood, has life everlasting." Amen.

A YEAR OF MERCY WITH POPE FRANCIS

Imagine That You Are There

We might well ask ourselves just one question: Who am I? Who am I, before my Lord? Who am I, before Jesus who enters Jerusalem amid the enthusiasm of the crowd? Am I ready to express my joy, to praise him? Or do I stand back? Who am I, before the suffering Jesus?

Reflection: In order to accept the mercy of God, we must have the courage to accept him publically. Consider the scene of Palm Sunday. Place yourself in the scene and imagine that you are there. Where do you find yourself? Who are you, before the Lord?

From Bishop Baraga's Journal:

Apr. 9: A great privilege of a Christian towards his God is to worship Him in Adoration."

"During this week, as we gather for worship, as we fast, as we pray and meditate on the life-giving events of these last days of our Lord's life, we try to enter imaginatively into the story of Christ's passion, to feel the weight of the cross, to understand a little of the immensity of God's sacrifice for us, and the immensity of God's love for us."

– Br. Geoffrey Tristram

On Palm Sunday, we begin the journey to Calvary that we will live out across the next week. We are invited to join the crowd in shouting "Hosanna" and "Crucify." And we are invited to accompany our Lord in the dramatic events of his final days.
