Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 10, 2018

Saint Anne Prayer

Good Saint Anne, obtain for me an increase of faith in the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist. Help me to see in this great Sacrament Christ our High Priest, making real for me the saving grace of His death on the cross; feeding my soul with His Flesh and Blood so that I may live in Him and He in me; producing the unity of the people of God and gathering His Church together. By your powerful intercession with God, help me to center my life around the altar that I may inherit the promise of the Lord: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood, has life everlasting." Amen.

Eternal God, please bless our priests, who represent you on this earth.

Make them more greatly aware of the grace that you pour out through them when they minister the sacraments, and help them to fall more deeply in love with You after each and every Mass that they celebrate.

Please strengthen our priests, who shepherd your flock, that they may be examples of your Truth and guide us always on the path to you. We ask these things of You our Eternal Priest.

Reflections with Pope Francis

What is Magnanimity?

Magnanimity: This virtue of the great and the small.... What does being magnanimous mean? It means having a great heart, having greatness of mind; it means having great ideals, the wish to do great things to respond to what God asks of us.

Hence also, for this very reason, to do well the routine things of every day and all the daily actions, tasks, meetings with people; doing the little everyday things with a great heart open to God and to others. It is therefore important to cultivate human formation with a view to magnanimity.

Reflection: Most of us want to be great-hearted and filled with enthusiasm for life, but then reality sets in. If you're in a slump, ask God to help you find your way out. Start by practicing generosity of spirit in the smallest details of your routine today.

Happy Birthday, Father John!

May God bless you with peace and joy as you celebrate your birthday!

Happy Birthday!

Happy birthday on June 14th.
