Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 22, 2018

Saint Anne Prayer

Good Saint Anne, obtain for me an increase of faith in the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist. Help me to see in this great Sacrament Christ our High Priest, making real for me the saving grace of His death on the cross; feeding my soul with His Flesh and Blood so that I may live in Him and He in me; producing the unity of the people of God and gathering His Church together. By your powerful intercession with God, help me to center my life around the altar that I may inherit the promise of the Lord: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood, has life everlasting." Amen.

Ste. Anne and St. Joachim were parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and grandparents of the incarnate Jesus Christ. As we remember them, we should also remember and value the grandparents' role in our own family.

As Pope Francis writes... The great human family is like a forest, where sound trees bear solidarity, communion, trust, support, security, friendship. . . . And this is why the presence of grandparents is very important: a precious presence both for practical help and above all for their educational contribution. Grandparents preserve in themselves the values of a people, of a family, and they help parents pass them on to the children.

Ste. Anne and St. Joachim, pray for us.

Reflections with Pope Francis

Look Upon the Stones, Thorns and Weeds

I know that you want to be good soil, true Christians, authentic Christians, not part-time Christians: “starchy,” aloof, and Christian in “appearance only.” I know that you don’t want to be duped by a false freedom, always at the beck and call of momentary fashions and fads. I know that you are aiming high, at long-lasting decisions which are meaningful...

Let’s do this: in silence . . . say to him: Jesus, look upon the stones, the thorns, and the weeds that I have, but look also upon this small piece of ground that I offer to you so that the seed may enter my heart. In silence, let us allow the seed of Jesus to enter our hearts.

Reflection: Think over Pope Francis’ words, and in silence pray as Pope Francis recommends, asking the seed of Jesus to enter your heart.
